The following local veterinary practices were contacted, and the office managers agreed to display our business cards and brochures: Nazareth Veterinary Center PC and Pleasant Valley Animal Hospital. The information was resubmitted to ABE Veterinary Hospital due to confusion concerning the zip code. A cover letter and packets of cards and brochures were mailed on or before February 6. Several local businesses have been approached about donating prizes for the May show raffle. The businesses contacted have insisted that donation requests be on official letterhead, just our business card and a brochure are not enough. A request was forwarded to a board member for the acquisition of letterhead for correspondence purposes.

WAY TO GO!

I got a notice a few days ago that Poppy, my little chocolate girl, has been awarded 12th in the nation in CynoSport Rally Veterans, formerly APDT. She won almost all her titles in CynoSport Rally at the age of 12. She earned her Level One and Level Two titles and then Veterans finishing in either first or second place each time. We were working on her Level Three but then I felt the courses were too long for her at her age, so decided to try Veterans. I am very proud of what she has accomplished since starting to compete in obedience and Rally at the age of seven. She has achieved titles in AKC, UKC, Companion Dog Sports Program (CDSP) and CynoSport Rally. At this point she is teaching her little sister, Abbey, all about obedience!!

Jacqui Hartranft

Debra's Tripperjanz Adventure "Trip" owned by Debra Petrusjanz finished his UOR2 with a perfect score and HIT. Also a UKC CCDX with two firsts and a second. And also AKC CDX with two firsts and a third. Trip has been a very busy boy!
