UPCOMING DEMO - SHARE YOUR DOG

The Allentown Dog Training Club demo team is active on an as needed basis. No dog has too little or too much training. Novice dogs show how to start and advanced dogs show what these skills grow into. It is nice to have a variety of dogs represented. The important thing is that your dog is able to interact with touchy feely kids and adults and be well mannered and trustworthy around other dogs. It is always nice if your dog has a trick - kids are more impressed with them!

Our next demo is Monday May 12, AM. Saint Jane's School, 1900 Washington Blvd., Easton PA. This is for a wonderful group of elementary children that we have had the pleasure of meeting over the last several years. Please let me know as soon as possible if you would like to join us. Donna Barto
