XI. PUBLICITY

The beginner obedience classes scheduled for September have been entered on the WDIY, WFMZ, B104 and Discover Lehigh Valley on-line calendars. B104 is part of a network that includes WZZO and WAEB. Although one of the classes is in the process of being rescheduled, the exposure is positive, and hopefully, handlers interested in that class may be kept on a waiting list and contacted as soon as the class is available.

In addition, information for the club's participation in the Macungie and/or Emmaus Halloween Parade is being amassed. Specifics on the Emmaus Parade will not be available until the first week in September. The Macungie Parade will be held on Saturday, October 26 with a rain date of Saturday, November 2. The parade organizer has supplied the registration form which is included in this report.

We need a minimum of eight marchers. We should also enlist two people without dogs to carry a banner and between two and four people to hand out our cards to spectators. We may want to attach a small dog biscuit to each card. Dusty will find out if we are allowed to include a small pick-up truck or a flatbed in our group as this is handy for those with small dogs and/or tired feet. Finally, candy may be thrown in this parade which should be a consideration for those intending to march.

XII. OLD BUSINESS

- a. Staples – remember to use our telephone number when making purchases, 610-439-2800
- b. Mats - Dave Dock brought samples of the larger, thicker mats. Discussion about having members put down and pick up mats to save money. The new mats will not be as heavy as the old ones.
- c. ADTC clothing- Donna Barto is holding off ordering. We need a few more of some items to make the needed 12 to order.
- d. Website – Clydette reported that the website is back up and is now smartphone capable.

XIII. NEW BUSINESS

- a. Donna Gigliotti will be back at Macungie Vet. Hospital soon on a limited basis.
- b. Friends and Family Picnic in Macungie Park this Saturday. All are welcome.
- c. Cris reported that Bev Melcher is having an open house on 9/1 with a pig roast (bring a side dish). Come learn about barn hunts. See Cris for more information.
- d. Laura Romanik will be back in Feb. 2015. If interested, let Janice know.
- e. John Landis reported on new AKC proposed obedience rule changes. Go to AKC.org on the left side to proposed changes. They are looking for feedback. There were discussions about the name changes.
