XI. PUBLICITY

As previously stated, the Macungie Parade will be held on Saturday, October 26 with a rain date of Saturday, November 2. The parade organizer has supplied the registration form which is included in this report. We need a minimum of eight marchers. We should also enlist two people without dogs to carry a banner and between two and four people to hand out our cards to spectators. Consequently, earlier this month members received an e-mail requesting that anyone interested in marching contact Dusty. The response was minimal. A sign-up sheet will be distributed at the September general membership meeting to ascertain if the club will march in the Macungie Parade.

New ADTC business cards were supplied to the Willow Restaurant this month. Also, the publicity committee requests permission to place an ad in the East Penn and Salisbury Press newspapers to promote our beginner classes.

XII. OLD BUSINESS

- a. Staples – remember to use our telephone number when making purchases, 610-439-2800. We get 10% credit.
- b. Mats - Dave Dock brought samples of the larger, thicker mats. We have samples to put down and take apart to figure how long it will take.
- c. ADTC clothing- Last chance to order clothing. Donna Barto is holding off ordering. We need a few more of some items to make the needed 12 to order. The hats are OK, we need 4 coats, 1 hooded sweatshirt, and 3 t-shirts.

Do you have a house full of show or performance dogs?
Do you have one beloved family pet?
Do you spend sleepless nights worrying about breaking a bone?
What will happen to your house full of dogs if you are delayed getting to them?
If a disaster is imminent can your pets get out of harms way?
Can you fund their care short/long term?
How long can you keep your dogs?

These and other fears, worries and questions will be answered during this 90-minute presentation and workshop. Leave this workshop with everything you need to create a pet trust with your estate attorney. Know what questions to ask and documents to bring to create the continuity of care document you want and can afford. If your pet’s continuity of care plan is not in writing; if you haven’t received acknowledgement from the caregivers in writing or you haven’t set aside money to pay for the care of your pets, you are leaving their care to chance or worse.

Cost of attendance: $10.00 members; $20.00 non members; Walk-ins $30.00

Advance Registration required by Monday, Nov. 10, 2014

Send checks payable to LVDWAC to Sally Campbell, 3364 Honeysuckle Rd. Bethlehem, PA 18015

The Ty cup is awarded by the SCOA each year to a dog that earns titles in 3 venues. A score is assigned to each title or degree and the dog with the most points wins. The Ty cup is named after my First Spinone He was the first Spinone to earn titles in several different venue. The cup is in existence 12 years and my dogs have earned it 4 out of the 12 years.

Kay Scales writes:

Gem (Flat – Coated Retriever) went to the same UKC trials on 7/13 that Deb Petrusjanz's Tripper did. I think it is interesting that both dogs train at Allentown and both got HIT that day. Gem got hers by winning a run off. She got 1981/2 in Open B, that finished her open title.

She is now UCDX Harlequin's Black Spinel CD

She really is a joy to train and show. She is of course a Flat-coat.
