

INFO DOG ON LINE ENTRY SYSTEM

You will first come to the Rules screen. Read through the rules and click on the "I Agree . . ." button.

The screenshot shows the 'Rules' page of the InfoDog online entry system. The page is titled 'Welcome to Jim Rau Dog SI' and 'InfoDog - The Dog Fan'. The main content area contains a list of 11 rules regarding entry procedures, cancellations, and payment. At the bottom of the rules section, there is a button that says 'I Agree With the Above and Wish to Continue'. To the right of the rules, there is a sidebar with a search bar, social media links for Facebook and Twitter, and an advertisement for Schwab's Custom Screeners.

1. You are hereby notified that the use of this entry method, MB-F, INC. disclaims any liability for direct, consequential, special or punitive damages or losses which you may incur as a result of your use of this entry option. In the event of limitations, you should consider submitting your entry directly to the proper organization/show secretary. In the event your entries are rejected, you will receive a refund for the entry fee only.

4. Once entries have been submitted you cannot retrieve them to change in any way. If you have submitted an entry and wish to change the class, you must send a written notification or you will be entered in both classes.

5. All cancellations, changes, corrections, move-ups, withdrawals, etc., must be done in the normal way through the organization/show secretary handling the show. You should be aware of each organization's policy regarding any administrative fees they may charge for handling cancellations. Any such request must include the show name and date, dog's breed, name and AKC number, owner's name and address, along with the information on what is to be done. Administrative fees are not refundable for cancelled entries.

6. Be very careful to proofread what you type into the dog's entry (i.e., class, name, etc.) as the program now will accept whatever you type and it will become part of your dog's record in the computer files. In addition, you should refer to the actual premium list for classes offered, fee breaks, etc. If you need to have a premium list sent to you contact the appropriate organization handling the show.

7. Please refer to the Acceptable Titles table for acceptable dog titles you may use on an entry for an AKC show. Acceptable Titles

8. Keep good records. Be aware this system WILL ACCEPT duplicate entries (however, not within a particular transaction). Administrative fees will NOT be refunded. Entry fee refunds are handled through the organization/show secretary handling show according to their individual policies regarding such refunds.

9. You will receive a reference number on screen for your entries at the end of the payment process when your payment is approved. IMPORTANT - Your entries are not complete and not accepted until you receive this reference number. YOU MUST have this reference number in order to verify the status of your entries. An automated email with this reference number along with a summary of the entries made will be generated and sent to the email address you provide.

10. The InfoDog online entry system accepts entries for AKC events in accordance with the latest entry form instructions and Rules Applying to Dog Shows (rules) of the American Kennel Club. From time to time these entry form instructions and rules are subject to change. In the event of a discrepancy in these entry form instructions and rules versus the text within the InfoDog online entry system, the AKC entry form instructions and rules will take precedence.

11. This web site uses 128 bit encryption and secure socket layers for your information protection. This is the best security currently available on the Internet. If you buy anything using your credit card number on the Web, you should be aware of the security risks involved. Theoretically, your card number could be intercepted en route and used by unauthorized people. If you send your credit card number via Internet, you must understand that this risk is yours and only you can decide whether the convenience is worth the risk. If you nevertheless choose to use this electronic payment option, MB-F, INC. disclaims any liability for direct, consequential, special or punitive damages or losses which you may incur as a result of your use of this payment option.

I Agree With the Above and Wish to Continue

If you have never used this on line entry system before you will have to enter your dog's information here.
