

ADTC BARKS AND BYTES NEWSLETTER

FEBRUARY 2022

Welcome to February, the shortest month of the year. I am starting February's newsletter with this information. Last month I had put in information under a FOR YOUR INFORMATION COLUMN for a website written and developed by AKC Judge John Cox, called RANDOM LITTLE TIDBITS. At the time of the writing, I had not checked his website for a while, so I figured by typing in RANDOM LITTLE TIDBITES by John Cox, it would come up. Which it did. However, I could not get my computer to click on and to open the various topics he wrote about. By now I believe there are around seventy some topics. I do not know if anyone has tried to find the website and then click on to it, but I hope you had better luck than I did. I finally found an address for it which works. If you want to check out RANDOM LITTLE TIDBITES please use this address. <https://saintbernardarchive.com/library>. I highly recommend it and there is so much valuable information on it no matter what level of training you are at. And I might add, he writes about the things that judges look for. It is well worth your time to check back every so often and read what he is offering for FREE!

Since we are in the midst of winter, I want to repeat something I had mentioned several times last year. Please remember to check your emails to be sure that we are having training on either Wednesday or Thursday or both. Since we never know what the weatherman will bring us, be sure to err on the side of caution by checking your emails before coming to training.

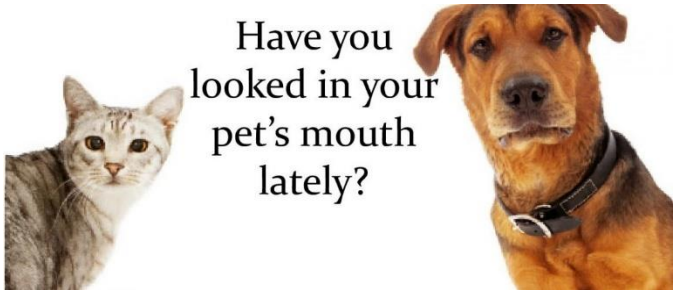

At the January meeting we had the election of our officers for 2022. We listed the officers in the December and January newsletter. Be sure to thank all those who volunteered to be on the Board. And we welcome a new member to the Board, Joanne Stock. Thank you, Joanne, for volunteering. We would also like to thank Carol McCarthy for having served as our Board Recording Secretary and for having done such an excellent job!

SPECIAL THANK YOU AND CONGRATULATIONS TO THOSE MEMBERS WHO VOLUNTEERED TO SERVE ON THE BOARD THIS YEAR. It is so important to have members volunteer for jobs that are needed to keep ADTC a great dog training club. We offer weekly training almost every Wednesday and Thursday all year with a few exceptions and some weather-related cancellations. Last month we listed our trainers so be sure to thank them as well.

Training has resumed and shows are starting up. You can find a list of shows on www.InfoDog.com and the AKC website, under "Results and Events." For some shows, you must get your application in as soon as it opens because they fill so quickly. Also be sure to check on the OPENING DATE as well as the CLOSING DATE. I have found that some do not have an opening date but if the premium list is there, then you can assume that it is open and that they are taking entries. You do not have to enter your dog in trials to enjoy the time spent training him or her. Some of our members just enjoy coming to class with no intention of "ever" showing their dog in a trial. They just enjoy the training and meeting with others with similar interests...the love of our dogs.

If you are interested in renting either the whole or half the room, please contact Phyllis to see what is available. Just remember to put away anything that you get out back on the jump cart. POINT SHOW

Cris Courduff wants to thank everyone who donated to our awards for the point show in May. She is pleased to report that all rosettes for obedience and AM and PM rally have been spoken for. Also, she reported that all the specialty rosettes have also been sponsored.

MANY, MANY THANKS TO ALL WHO DONATED TO OUR AWARDS FOR OUR POINT SHOW IN MAY!!

AND THANK YOU CRIS FOR HEADING THIS IMPORTANT COMMITTEE! Giving such nice prizes attracts more people and dogs to enter our trial. If any members remember the Lehigh Valley Kennel Club trials in this past December, qualifiers got a nice gift, either a small flashlight (so handy) and tote bag. It is just a nice touch to thank those who enter.

See the "Save The Date" flyer in this newsletter for more information on the show which will be held in Barto on May 21. Remember we always need volunteers to steward and to help with the show. So, mark the date on your calendars and be ready to volunteer!

SUNSHINE CLUB

The club sent the following cards out in the last month:

Please send cards to these members. I know that it will be greatly appreciated.

Debbie Achenzie is still finalizing and updating the 2022 club membership list. Once totally finalized, Debbie will send out the list to all members via email.

WHO IS NEW

Debbie also reported that we have no new members to report this month.

MEMBER OF THE MONTH

Dusty Springer is back to handling Publicity, which includes the Member of the Month. Dusty will be revamping the Member of the Month column and is hoping to feature some of our newer members so we can all get to know them. So, look for a Member of the Month in today's newsletter.

Sally Campbell: ADTC Member of the Month

I have been living with Irish setters since the early 1970's. My first Irish had her CDX and was fully trained through UD, but she could not compete due to arthritis. She had to jump 36" and would always clip the bar. She could do 34", but the extra 2" was just too much.

I currently have Mamie, aka Ch Ramblin' Red Slamdunk Hostess with the Mostest, BN, TKN, CGC. Mamie is 6 1/2. We train in obedience, rally, and agility. I met Mamie when she was 9 months old. She had been kept by her breeder, along with a sister and two brothers to be shown in the breed ring. Her breeder soon realized that she needed more attention than could be given in the kennel and asked if I was interested in a dog. I had recently lost Duffy and was looking for another Irish. She was the clown of the litter and definitely needed obedience work. She also needed a lot of activities to keep her occupied, so agility was another activity that we added. I think of all the activities, we like agility the best. Mamie's tail never stops wagging when we are in the ring. She has a good time, and I like the exercise.

Mamie first completed her championship in the breed ring. She also has 5 points, including one major towards her grand championship. She has earned the beginner novice title, the CGC, and the novice tricks title. She also recently received her P1 Standard title in USDAA agility. She has other Q's in USDAA agility and will continue to compete to earn other titles. She is also working for her Rally Novice title. She has 1 Q, but COVID has put trials on hold for us.

In addition to my membership in ADTC, I am currently a member of the Lehigh Valley Dream Weavers Agility Club and the co-chair of their agility trials. I am involved in other service activities, but none that are dog related. In the 70's I trained with the Lehigh German Shepherd Dog Club, and I was an assistant instructor for their obedience classes. I also judged a few matches in that time span.

In my experience, the biggest challenge with an Irish setter is focus. They are hunting dogs, and their noses tend to get them into trouble. Most also do not respond well to drill. If they have done something once or twice, that's enough. So short training periods work better for them.

I had a male Irish named Wizard, who was competing for his novice obedience title. We were at a trial near Dulles airport in the summer; it was 95+ degrees, with high humidity—a brutally hot day. Wizard had 198 1/2 going into the long sits and downs, and at that time we had to do a one-minute sit and a three minute down, with all the dogs lined up across the ring. He was fine with the long sit, but about one minute into the long down, he looked over at the judge's table, got up, and lay down in the shade for the remaining time. The judge started to laugh, and said in a big southern drawl, "That's one smart dawg." Needless to say, our 198 1/2 went south fast.

My advice to new handlers is to work on attention exercises from the beginning. You should become the most important thing in your dog's life.

ACHIEVEMENTS

CONGRATULATIONS TO THOSE MEMBERS WHO PARTICIPATED IN THE COMPANION DOG SPORTS PROGRAM KNOWN AS CDSP. This is not an AKC obedience program but one which was started many years ago and many of our members participate in it. It is a great way to get dogs started in obedience and nice for older dogs who need a lower jump height. Rather than forget a member who is getting a RANKING CERTIFICATE this year, we are urging members to check out the CDSP website for the list of Rankings. If you would like to have your ranking listed in the March newsletter, just send it to Jacqui and Rita. It is a great honor to be listed in the TOP TWENTY DOGS in their obedience program as it is a Nationwide listing.

RALLY NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP ELIGIBILITY LIST

For those members who participate in Rally, the AKC has released the list of those eligible to participate in the Championship which will be in July in Wilmington, Ohio. It is about a day's drive from this area. You can check out the list which is in categories of Novice, Advanced, Excellent and Masters. The Rally National Championship for 2022 will give you all the information. However, for those who wish to enter, there will be a drawing of names and hopefully your name will be drawn.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL OUR ALLENTOWN DOG TRAINING CLUB MEMBERS WHO MADE THE ELIGIBILITY LIST. You are welcome to let us know if you are on the list and if you are planning to go if your name is drawn.

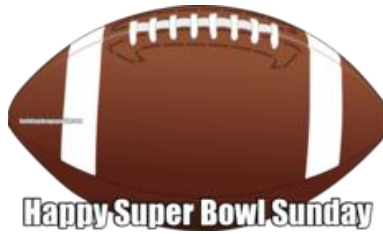

UPCOMING EVENT

Since we are sending out congratulations to those members who are listed in the Companion Dog Sports Program national rankings, Let's Speak Dog will be holding a trial on April 16. It will be at their facility in Plainfield Township outside of Easton. For those who are interested, please go on the Let's Speak Dog website or the CDSP upcoming events website. They have venues in Starter Novice, Novice, Open, Utility and Versatility. Do check the CDSP website for more information.

I made up a Super Bowl quiz for you to have fun with. The quiz asks some basic football knowledge questions, and some questions specific to the game that day. A lot of the questions are just plain luck like whether Coke or Pepsi will have the first commercial; other questions may ask who will score first, etc. Most of these answers are determined during the game. You can use this as a party game for your Super Bowl party by having each guest answer the questions ahead of time and see how many questions they get right at the end of the game or just enjoy the quiz for yourself! It's just something fun to do! Your homework assignment is to just enjoy the game! May the best team win! Rita Brian
