COMMITTEES:

Publicity – Dusty Springer

Paw Prints on the Canal, held on Sunday, June 11, was a success on many levels. Club members did an outstanding demo and responded graciously to all questions and concerns raised by visitors to our table.

A woman stopped by to tell her story of training a difficult dog. A trainer from another organization had labeled her dog “untrainable.” She then brought the dog to ADTC for classes. She and the dog became a team, and in her words, “She was the best dog I’ve ever owned.” She credited the trainers at ADTC for assisting her in turning a recalcitrant dog into a wonderful companion.

Please take the time to thank Chuck and Deb Achenzie, Maryann Beatty, Wilma Brucker Krause, Katie Dyer, Mary Spatz, Phyllis Broderick, Sherry Hanley, Gail James, Tracy and Randy Krapf, Edie Rysdyk and Joe Quinn, Steve Markowitz, Jenn Weidman, Jodi and Ray Delabar, Bill and Dusty Springer and their canine companions for representing ADTC so well. A shout out to Tracy Krapf’s friend Maria who was a great help and to ADTC members Nadine Bosico and Mary Minnich who came by to show their support for the club.

Finally, a special thank you to Sherry Hanley who lent her canopy and ground cover which kept everyone comfortable, to Tracy and Randy Krapf for taking and sharing pictures of the dogs in action, to Gail James who donated food samples to give to visitors. And, as always, the support of Chuck and Deb Achenzie and Bill Springer was priceless. Respectfully – Dusty Springer
