Training Director's Report November 8, 2023

The next session will start on November 29-30. The schedule will go out hopefully this weekend and the website will be updated when the registration forms go out.

I have been asked to provide a nosework class which we will offer this session taught by Judy Lasso. Don't yet know the time or day. Stay tuned.

Our first indoor show was held this past weekend. It was a huge success. In obedience there were 58 dogs, 75 classes and in rally there were 54 dogs, 84 runs. The match shows were filled with the public match bringing in quite a bit of money. I think we will try to offer this more often. We got lots of compliments on our hospitality and the friendliness of our club members. We really pulled together to to put on a first-class show. I'm just going to read one email. I will leave the financial of this show for Linda to tell you about. But I would like to thank everyone who came out to help from those who baked to those who cleaned. Everything you did was greatly appreciated. We will be doing this again next year so start training those dogs so you can enter.

Respectfully submitted
